INTRODUCING A NEW MASS SETTING
MASS OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

This week we will be introducing a new Mass Setting at the English Masses. “Mass of the Immaculate Conception” is a fairly recent setting composed by Dr. Peter Latona, the music director at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. We chose it because it strikes a balance between Gregorian chant and the congregational mass settings you may be more accustomed to, whether it’s the “Mass in Honor of St. Benedict,” “Heritage Mass,” or another commonly used setting.

We also chose this because the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception is, in many ways, the “Mother Church” of the United States, a place where all Catholics in America can gather and participate in the Paschal Mystery of the Eucharist. The Immaculate Conception is also the patroness of the United States of America. By singing a Mass setting from the Shrine, we hope it encourages a sense of union not only in our parish, St. Edward’s, but also with our brethren in our diocese and the nation, under the protection of Our Lady, the Immaculate Conception.
